Pre-Graduate / Law Advising

Grad School 101
Are you thinking about grad school but don’t know where to start? Discover the differences between Master’s and Ph.D. programs, and research versus professional programs in this workshop, as well as various factors to consider when choosing the type of program, including funding.

Maximizing the GRE
This workshop introduces the Graduate Record Examinations (GRE) and discusses study strategies and test-taking best practices.

Preparing for the Fair
Prepare for Graduate and Law School into Day! Get suggestions for how to approach your school representatives and what to ask them.

Go to Grad School for Psychology
Are you interested in going to grad school for psychology? Learn about the many different programs available, including the Master’s in Social Work (MSW), Master’s in Marriage and Family Therapy (MFT), clinical psychology Ph.D.s and Psy.D.s, and research Ph.D.s. Find out which grad programs prepare you for specific career paths, including the many different programs available, such as those in psychology, social work, and clinical psychology.

Preparing for and Applying to Teaching Credential
Explore how to prepare for teaching credential programs and how it works with other aspects of the application.

Graduate and Law School Information Day
Graduate and Law School Information Day gives students and others an opportunity to explore graduate and law programs and speak directly with admissions staff. Attendees can learn more about the application process, program faculty, culture, and curriculum, as well as financial support and fellowships. Programs may also offer free webinars to attendees who stop by their tables. This event is free and open to the public. Visit glsid.ucdavis.edu for more information.

Preparing for and Applying to Grad School for International Students
Explore how to prepare and apply for graduate study in a research or professional program as an international student. Offered through partnership with Undergraduate Education and Advising in the College of Letters and Science.

How to Write the Law School Personal Statement
Learn about the personal statement for law school, what it should cover and how it works with other aspects of the application.

SPECIALIZED WORKSHOPS

GRE Verbal and Writing Workshops
Are you thinking about the GRE this fall? Join us for a workshop on strategies specifically for the verbal and writing sections. We will go over practice questions and prompts.
